

Streak O' Lean Streak O' Fat

A. A. Gray with John Dilleshaw, 1930
[Seven Foot Dilly]

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). It consists of five staves of music, labeled A through D. Staff A contains two measures of music with a repeat sign at the beginning. Staff B contains two measures of music with a repeat sign at the end. Staff C contains two measures of music with a repeat sign at the end. Staff D contains two measures of music with a repeat sign at the end. Chord symbols are placed above the notes: C, G7, C, Am, C, Am, C, C, G, C, G, C, Am, C.

A. A. Gray played the parts in the order AABBCDDCC: some modern players prefer AABBCDD:
Parts A,B and C are the first, third and fourth parts of the Skillet Licker's "Hell Broke Loose in Georgia", the second part of which is totally different.
